LAST BATTLE LOST BY GENERAL SHAFTER

After Seven Days Illness He Yields to Death.

VETERAN BORE ILLNESS BRAVE

The Interment Will Be In the Post Cemetery at San Francisco Immediately After Arrival of Body with Full Military Honors.

Bakersville, Cal., Nov. 14.—Major General William Rufus Shafter, United States army, retired, died at 12:45 p. m. Monday, at the ranch of Captain W. H. McKittrick, his son-in-law, 20 miles south of this city, after an illness of seven days, despite the best medical attention available in California.

While returning from the polls last Tuesday, General Shafter contracted a severe chill, which augmented a slight indisposition, and necessitated confinement to his bed. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday no improvement was noticed. Saturday afternoon a slight rally was detected, and relatives and physicians were extremely hopeful, but the change was short lived.

Through it all the veteran bore up bravely. Always cheerful and hopeful, his mind clear and cognizant of his critical condition, the patient remained conscious until 9 o'clock. Oxygen sent from San Francisco performed a great work in keeping life up, but after midnight and early in the morning, a constant weakening was discerned. The general lapsed into unconsciousness at 9 o'clock, and remained in that condition until death.

Captain and Mrs. McKittrick, the general's son-in-law and daughter, and James W. Shafter, a brother, were at the bedside when the end came.

The body of Major General Shafter will leave this city Wednesday evening on a Santa Fe train and will arrive at Point Richmond the next morning and will be placed aboard a government tug and escorted by military officers to the Presidio at San Francisco. Interment will be in the post cemetery immediately after the arrival with full military honors.

The body will rest at the McKittrick ranch until Wednesday.

Dead Body of Woman Found.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 14.—The body of Annie Shirley, a negro woman, was found at Pratt City with her head crushed and indications that she had been criminally assaulted after she had been murdered. D. W. Sparrow, a guard at the state convict prison, and L. Stovall, a former guard, both white men, have been held for investigation. It is said that cards and money, said to belong to these men, were found near the scene of the murder.

She Claims Self-Defense.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 14.—At Getmore mines, 16 miles south of this place, Mrs. J. C. Pelham shot and killed her husband who was a white miner. She surrendered to Justice of the Peace Tharp at Adager. She refuses to make a statement, but it is said that Pelham came home in an intoxicated condition and the wife shot in self-defense. There had been family trouble for some time.

BILLS CAUSE SURPRISE.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 14.—The United States grand jury at Pensacola, Fla., after four days' session, returned indictments against twelve persons charging peonage in connection with cases which originated at the Jackson Lumber company's camps several months since. Much surprise was evinced, not only by those indicted, but by people throughout the state when news of the action of the grand jury became known. Some of the persons indicted were in the court room when the news of the finding of the indictment became known, having been in attendance as witnesses before the jury.

W. S. Harlan, manager of the company, was one of those indicted, but he was not present.

All of the alleged peonage cases originated when the company imported from New York a number of foreigners to work in the lumber camps at a time when labor was scarce. The men claimed they had been promised by the employment agencies more money than that which they received, when they reached the camps and consequently some of them became dissatisfied. Some, it is alleged, who never intended working, endeavored to make their way to other places after being at the place a short time, and there is where peonage is alleged to have been committed, for it is charged that some of the bosses of the company followed, some of these men and after they had passed from Florida into Alabama, seized them and compelled them to return to the camps and work out the amounts due the company.

The Chattanooga Lynching.

Washington, Nov. 14.—On motion of Solicitor General Hoyt, the supreme court of the United States court fixed Dec. 3 for hearing argument on the preliminary law question involved in the case of Sheriff Shipp, and others, of Chattanooga, Tenn., in which they are charged with contempt of the supreme court in connection with the lynching of a negro in whose case the court had assumed jurisdiction, the chief justice saying that the hearing would be confined strictly to the preliminary question, and would be without prejudice on any other question involved.

White and Negroes Disagree.

Mount Vernon, O., Nov. 14.—Race troubles which have existed for some time culminated in a serious cutting affray when Grant Stewart, negro, slashed George Dunn, white, with a knife so that 47 stitches were required to close the wound. Dunn is dying, and Stewart is in jail. There was much excitement during the day, but all is quiet tonight, and no further trouble is believed imminent. Considerable ill feeling has existed between the blacks and the whites for some time, and there have been frequent street fights.

Frank Drank Carbolic Acid.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 14.—Hedrik Frank, aged 39 years, committed suicide at 541 Bryan street, east, by drinking carbolic acid. He had told his landlady and his neighbors that he was going to kill himself, but none believed him. Disappointment over the loss of money in Germany was the cause of the act. He burned up all of his correspondence and standing before the dying flame, drank the deadly poison. Then he washed it down with a large swallow of whisky and laid down to die.

Are Charged with Cruelty.

Bainbridge, Ga., Nov. 14.—Alleging that a whipping administered his little 11-year-old son amounted to an assault and battery, Captain E. L. McGruder, master of the steamer Ruth, plying between Bainbridge Apalachicola and Columbus, swore out criminal warrants against Professor J. A. Coldwell, principal of the Bainbridge High school, and Professor Hartzog, teacher in one of the intermediate grades.

Small Whalebone Catch.

New Bedford, Mass., Nov. 14.—The fall catch of whalebone will not exceed over 20,000 pounds, according to advices from the Arctic fleet. Up to date the catch numbers only 3 whales, between six ships.

AUGUSTA MAN IS ALLEGED DEFAULTER

Indicted for Embezzlement From Building-Loan Association.

FAST LIVING CAUSED SHORTAGE

Was Prominent in Business and Church Circles—Failure of Concern Effects Entire Section—Is More than 60 Years of Age.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 14.—A case of alleged embezzlement similar in many respects to the case of T. W. Alexander, who pleaded guilty in the superior court a few days ago, is that of E. R. Derry, charged with the embezzlement of $100,000 from the Augusta Real Estate and Building association. The case will probably came up for trial in the superior court at the beginning of next week's session, as several indictments against Derry charging him with embezzlement have been returned by the grand jury.

Derry, more than 60 years old, of influential family, was secretary and treasury of the Augusta Real Estate and Building association, a corporate body, with a capital stock of $160,000. The purpose of the association was to lend money and purchase real estate and sell it afterward at a profit. The president and directors of the association had no active connection with the association, and all the actual business was entrusted to Derry. Last March the association suddenly became financially embarrassed, and upon examination of the accounts it was found to be more than $100,000 in debt, with no money with which to pay the overhanging obligations.

The directors then filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy, and the creditors of the association received practically nothing. Derry admitted at the time that he spent the money, although he claimed that he had no idea of stealing it, and said that he had spent it in fast living. He was not arrested, which was chiefly due to the reputation he had borne all his life for honesty and integrity, and also because of the advanced age of the man. A few days ago the grand jury of Richmond county, while making rigid investigation in all the cases that came under their consideration, indicted Derry on several charges of embezzlement.

The sheriff of the county went to the home of Derry's son-in-law, where the former was living, and placed him under arrest, while the alleged embezzler was in bed sick with the infirmities incident to advanced years. Derry gave bond at once for $10,000, and, if physically able to he will appear in the superior court next week and answer the charges preferred against him.

Like Alexander, Derry was one of the most highly regarded men in Augusta, and business men who held stock in the Augusta Real Estate and Building association caused many men to lose large sums of money, and very nearly resulted in several of the directors of the association going into bankruptcy.

It is probable that the people of this section had even more confidence in Derry than they had in Alexander, because of the fact that Derry was supposed to be very devout in his religious duty.

The loss of nearly $200,000 through the instrumentality of Alexander, and $100,000 through Derry is a hard blow to the merchants and business men of this section.

CAUGHT FIRE FROM GRATE.

Miss Love Smith, of Thomson, Burns To Death.

Thomson, Ga., Nov. 14.—Miss Love Smith, daughter of Hon. John E. Smith, representative to the legislature from McDuffie county, president of the Bank of Thomson, and of the Johnson & Smith Manufacturing company, was burned to death on Monday.

Miss Smith was in her room about 8:30 o'clock with her two little nieces who discovered that her clothes had ignited from the open grate. Miss Smith sat down on a lounge in the room and attempted to extinguish the flames.

Failing in this, Miss Smith wrapped herself in a rug on the floor. In the meantime her father, hearing the alarm of the children and seeing the smoke emanating from the room secured a bucket of water. Mr. Smith thought the lounge was afire and emptied the water on it. He then saw his daughter wrapped in the rug. He ran for another bucket of water, but before this could be secured, the young lady had been fatally burned. She died about noon in great agony.

Miss Smith was about 35 years of age and was a favorite with a large circle of friends. Her untimely death is deeply regretted.

Will Make Another Trial.

Bucksport, Me., Nov. 14.—Commander Robert E. Peary, the Arctic explorer, who is returning to the United States with the record of "farthest north" will make another attempt to reach the north pole in 1907. The explorer's ship, Roosevelt, was built in this town and it is recalled that when Commander Peary was here he said if he did not succeed this year, he would make another attempt in 1907, provided he did not lose his vessel. Dispatches from Commander Peary speak well of the ice-fighting and seaworthy qualities of the Roosevelt and local shipping men think that with repairs she should be ready to make the trip north next season.

Decision Was Reserved.

New York, Nov. 14.—Decision was reserved Monday by Justice Dowling in the supreme court on application made by John J. Adams, counsel for E. E. Smathers, for permission to inspect an affidavit said to have been in St. Louis, by Edward Sanders, in which Sanders is said to have admitted that he drugged Lou Dillon when she was defeated by Major Dalmar in the race for the Memphis Gold Cup in October, 1904. The case was an offshoot of the proceedings in which the Memphis officials are seeking to recover the gold cup from others on account of the alleged doctoring of Lou Dillon.

Ages Aggregate 215 Years.

New York, Nov. 14.—Two women, whose added ages are said to aggregate 215 years, are inmates of the home of the Daughters of Jacob for old people in this city. Leah Aronwald claims she is 104 years old and Esther Davis says she is just seven years older. Both of the old women have been married. They have seen five generations pass away. They have seen Napolean Bonaparte, both having been in Paris, when the famous soldier was making history in unmaking nations.

Immense Prune Crop.

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—The prune growers of California, will receive $2,550,000 more for their crop of 1906 than was obtained by them for their crop of 1905. This is the estimate of the leading dealer in the local market. The total amount due to the prune growers for this year's crop is $4,050,000, representing 180,000,000 pounds of prunes. As all the stocks are practically cleared up the estimate for 1906 is supposed to be fairly accurate.

Fenby Puts Bullet In Head.

The wound is considered serious and there is a slight chance for his recovery.

SAD DROWNING OF THOMAS PITTS

Well Known Young Man of This City Met Death at Egmont Key.

THE FULFILLMENT OF DUTY

Prompted Him to Swim a Strait Six Hundred Feet to Reach His Post On Time, but Strength Forsook Him, and He Met a Watery Grave.

Information has reached this city of the drowning of Thomas Pitts, which occurred at Egmont Key, near Tampa, Sunday night.

Deceased was a son of T. W. Pitts of this city, and was about twenty-eight years of age. He was formerly engaged in business at Fort White, but joined the army, and was in command of the pumping station when he met his death.

A letter from Mr. Pitts, who is now in Tampa, bears information to the effect that his son and the post surgeon went out in a naptha launch. The weather was so heavy that the launch was swamped, but the men managed to reach land, after a great struggle, which nearly cost them their lives.

There was a strait between the island where Mr. Pitts and his friend landed, about two hundred yards. Mr. Pitts was anxious to report for duty at the regular hour, and attempted to swim, which was the cause of his death.

Deceased was well known in this city and section, and friends will regret very much this sudden end.

The body was recovered Monday afternoon and taken to Tampa by an escort of honor from the barracks of Fort DeSoto. The interment was in Novelland Park cemetery.

OUT OF SORTS.

People Not Really Sick Are Often Most In Need of Care.

The people who actually are most in need of kind words and medical treatment are not those who are really sick, but just "out of sorts."

The old-time energy, force, strength and happy spirits are lacking; the physical and mental powers are flagging; there is poor appetite, and they cannot get the good out of the food they eat. In nine cases out of ten, this results directly from a weakened stomach, and no other treatment equals Mi-o-na to restore strength and health.

When the nerves and muscles are weak, if there is sleeplessness, irritability, and specks before the eyes, when the head aches and there is any distress and heaviness in the stomach, dizziness, and sometimes nausea, the use of Mi-o-na stomach tablets for a few days will make a world of improvement, and continued use for a reasonable time will restore perfect health.

These tablets are not mere digestives; they absolutely strengthen all the organs of digestion, so that there is good appetite, perfect digestion and strong nerves, when they are used.

A large box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets is sold for 50 cents by J. W. McCollum & Co., with an absolute guarantee that they will be successful in curing digestion and restoring health, or the money will be refunded. Ask them to show you the liberal guarantee they give with every 50-cent box of Mi-o-na.

of officers. General John C. Davant of Brooksville was unanimously re-elected Brigadier-General Commanding, and Col. A. D. Williams of Jacksonville re-appointed Adjutant-General and Chief-of-Staff.

Major-General W. H. Jewell, commanding the Florida Division, United Confederate Veterans, announced that Col. Robert J. Magill of Jacksonville had been re-appointed Adjutant-General and Chief-of-Staff, and had accepted the appointment.

The appointment of the Jacksonville veteran to this high position comes as a slight recognition of his sterling services to the Division during the year, which he served as Adjutant-General under General Fleming. By his untiring efforts he has put the Division in better financial condition than it has been in years, and in other lines his efforts have been equally successful.

Business duties in Jacksonville inclined Colonel Magill at first to decline re-appointment, but the urgent solicitations of General Jewell combined with that of many of the old comrades of the Chief-of-Staff, led him to reconsider and he has announced that he will serve. He is being congratulated on every hand, and it is the unanimous opinion of the old soldiers still here that this appointment, the first official act of General Jewell as Division Commander, is one which will redound to the best interests of the entire Division.

The report of Adjutant Magill was most encouraging. He stated that a year ago, when he took charge of the affairs of the Division, there was only $8.18 in the treasury. He managed to pay the bills, and now has on hand about $18. This report shows that Col. Magill has not neglected the trust which was reposed in him.

The reunion of 1906 was a great success, and those present will remember it for a long time.

Tuesday Night's Program.

The piano work of Misses Fennell and Burkhim was superb. They are two of Gainesville's most competent musicians, and general favorites in this line. The number by Misses Avera, Lewis, Bennett and Avera proved one of the best on the program, and they were heartily applauded. The vocal solo of Miss Brown was also good, and she was heartily encored.

In addition to the regular program Rev. D. L. Branning of Waldo, an old Confederate, rendered a new version of Dixie. It was a vocal solo, in which he accompanied himself on the violin, and received hearty applause. So impressed were the Veterans that Mr. Branning was prevailed upon to print the song, which he consented to do. Copies may be had at five cents each by calling at Matheson's shoe store or addressing Mr. Branning at Waldo, the proceeds to go to the Dickinson monument fund.

LAST DAY OF THE VETERANS' REUNION

SELECTION WAS UNANIMOUS

General Jewell Delivered a Short But Impressive Address of Acceptance, and Was Heartily Cheered—Grand Ball Concluded the Ceremonies.

With his old gray-clad comrades cheering madly and tossing their hats into the air in bursts of enthusiasm, Brigadier-General William H. Jewell of Orlando, for ten years the commander of the Third Brigade, was Wednesday morning unanimously elected Major-General, commanding the Florida Division, United Confederate Veterans.

All in all it was a splendid tribute to the beloved commander. Veterans throughout the hall were choked with emotion, and General Jewell, himself, when he began his speech of acceptance, was almost overcome, his voice choked, and his eyes filled with tears. It was a beautiful scene, and this, the closing feature of the sixteenth annual reunion of the Florida Division, will long be remembered by every old soldier present as one of its most memorable pictures, a picture painted in the warm colors of love and affection and popularity, a splendid tribute paid by brave and heroic men to one of the bravest of their numbers.

All other business had been finished and General Fleming, when he called for the election of a Major-General for the ensuing year, read again the Ocala resolution. He pointed out that this resolution, strictly speaking, was not a bar to the re-election of a commander, but that, believing that this was the idea which the soldiers of Florida had in mind when they adopted it, he felt that he must decline to allow his own name to be put in nomination, as some of his friends had wished him to do. This statement touched the hearts of the old soldiers, and they applauded the speaker vigorously.

Jewell is Nominated.

An instant later and Brigadier-General W. L. Wittich, former commander of the First Brigade, took the floor. Briefly he put in nomination the name of General Jewell, the senior brigadier of the Division. The nomination was greeted with applause, coming from all parts of the hall, showing that the Veterans present approved in every way the suggestion of General Wittich.

An instant later Brigadier-General Fred L. Robertson, Assistant Adjutant General of the United Confederate Veterans and on the staff of General Stephen D. Lee, seconded the nomination. Comrade Cox followed, with a beautiful eulogy of General Jewell, and then, old soldier after old soldier jumped to his feet and the seconding speeches came thick and fast.

Suddenly someone in the body jumped to his feet and shouted the motion that it be made unanimous. A second came almost instantly and the motion was carried.

Enthusiasm Was High.

Then Newsom's First Regiment Band, which has furnished the music that has marked the reunion, took its cue and the strains of "Dixie" filled the large hall. Enthusiasm here burst all bounds. Old soldiers jumped to their feet and began cheering. Hats were tossed in the air, canes beat on the floor, and those who could not make their voices heard stamped with their feet and thumped on the seats with whatever they could lay their hands on.

General Fleming, when order had been restored, appointed General Wittich and Comrade Cox a committee to escort the newly elected Major-General to the rostrum, and as the popular and well-beloved brigade commander marched forward the enthusiasm again burst all bounds and the veterans cheered and applauded, applauded and cheered.

General Jewell took his place just to the rear of General Fleming, who, in a few eloquent and appropriate words, thanked the old soldiers for the support that they had given him during the year that had just passed, expressed his pride in being a Confederate soldier, and asked that the same hearty support be given General Jewell that had been extended him. He then formally withdrew as Division commander and turned the office over to the newly elected Major-General.

General Jewell Accepts.

"My comrades: There are but three words that can come from my heart today, and they are 'I thank you.' Simple as they are, they come straight from the heart, and when they have been said all has been said. I can say no others, and so I say again I thank you for this signal honor that you have conferred upon me.

"When I marched with Barksdale, or when I rode with Hampton, I never dreamed that this honor or a similar honor would ever be mine. I, like you, my comrades, was a private soldier. And when I read the splendid tributes that have been paid to the private soldiers of the Confederate armies I am proud that I was a private soldier. It is a grand honor, a high honor.

"This is the day of the private soldier. Private soldiers have been elected to the command of Divisions in other States. And you have chosen me, a private soldier, to lead you during the ensuing year. My one regret, my comrades, is that I must leave my beloved comrades of the Third Brigade. They asked not, when they chose me as their commander, if I had held a commission. They asked only if I had done my duty, and, thank God, my answer could come clear and true. You, too, have asked no other question than did they.

"I appreciate this honor you have conferred upon me. I thank you again, and, from the bottom of my heart, I pray God bless you and keep you every one, my comrades."

Who Jewell Is.

Major-General William H. Jewell, of Orlando, commanding the Florida Division, United Confederate Veterans, was born in Massachusetts.

Early in life he moved to Vicksburg, Mississippi, and was residing there at the time of the war. When war was declared and the call for troops was issued, he enlisted as a private in the Twenty-first Mississippi, Ben Humphreys commanding, in Barksdale's Brigade.

With this command he served until after the battle of Gettysburg, when he was transferred to Wade Hampton's command, and, at the personal request of General Hampton himself, accepted a position on his staff, with the rank of captain. The captain's commission, however, was never issued. All through the war General Jewell was conspicuous for his bravery and his great kindly heart, and his lovable manner has endeared him to all who know him.

He now resides at Orlando, where he is engaged in the practice of his profession, that of an attorney. For ten years he has been the unanimous choice of the comrades of his brigade for brigadier-general, and the people of his section have honored him by twice sending him to represent them in the Legislature at Tallahassee. His friends are legion, and it can be safely said that there is no more generally beloved soldier in Florida than General Jewell.

As has been pointed out by General E. M. Law of Bartow, General Jewell fought with the Confederacy through principle alone, principle pure and unadulterated, one of his brothers having fought with the Federal troops. Every soldier here feels that the honor conferred is a merited one, an honor well bestowed and richly earned, another tribute to a brave private soldier of the Confederacy.

Fleming Is Honored.

Immediately after the election of General Jewell, on motion of Col. S. C. Boylston, Major-General Francis P. Fleming of Jacksonville was made honorary commander of the Florida Division for life, and the same honor was conferred upon all past commanders. This motion was enthusiastically and unanimously carried, and again stirred the old soldiers to cheering and tossing their hats.

General Fleming, in a few brief words, thanked his comrades for the honor conferred.

New Resolution Adopted.

A motion was made, near the close of the session, to the effect that hereafter no previous resolution be considered a bar to the re-election of a commander at the expiration of his term of office.

This resolution, after some discussion, was adopted. The way is now clear for the veterans to choose whomsoever they wish as their commander, and are no longer hampered by any resolution regarding re-election. The "Ocala resolution," which is vitiated by the one adopted this year, was to the effect that no commander should be elected for two successive terms.

Pensacola Next Year.

Pensacola was unanimously chosen as the city where the seventeenth annual reunion of the Florida Division shall be held. It was put in nomination by General Wittich, seconded by General Pasco, and, without one dissenting vote, was unanimously selected.

Ward Camp, United Confederate Veterans, of Pensacola, will be the host of the soldiers in 1907. The reunion will probably be held during the latter part of October. General Jewell suggested this, and, on behalf of Ward Camp, General Wittich assured him that his wishes would be carried out.

The exact dates for the reunion will be fixed by the Camp.

Resolutions of Respect.

On motion of General W. H. Sebring, who, though not a member of the Division, was given the privilege of the floor, a committee consisting of Major-General Francis P. Fleming, Major-General E. M. Law, Major-General W. D. Ballantine, Major-General W. H. Jewell, Brigadier-General Pasco, Brigadier-General W. L. Wittich, and Brigadier-General J. C. Davant, was appointed to draw up suitable resolutions on the death of Mrs. Varina Jefferson Davis, widow of the President of the Confederacy.

The committee is to report the resolutions to the Major-General commanding the Division, and, upon his approval thereof, they are to be spread by the Adjutant-General upon the minute books of the Division.

Shortly after noon the reunion adjourned, the closing words of General Jewell, following an earnest plea for a large Florida delegation to the general reunion in Richmond in May and June of 1907, were "Good-bye, my comrades, and may God bless and keep you all."

Ball At Night.

At night the Sponsors Ball, tendered by the local Confederate societies, was given. The music was furnished by Newsom's First Regiment Band, and the occasion proved a brilliant social event.

Second Brigade Reunion.

The Second Brigade, Florida Division, United Confederate Veterans, held its reunion yesterday morning. The chief feature was the election

CHEATHAM TO RESIGN.

Secretary of Southern Cotton Will Retire at Expiration of Term.

Atlanta, Nov. 14.—Richard Cheatham, secrtary of the Southern Cotton Association since its organization, will resign his position, and will sever his official connection with the organization when the executive committee meets at Birmingham on Jan. 15-16. Mr. Cheatham authorized this announcement in a statement given out Monday.

"I determined upon this step last March," said Mr. Cheatham. "It has never been made public, but members of the excutive committee have known of my determination for some time.

"My reason for retiring from the position is that I cannot devote my time and attention both to my position with the association and with the Cotton Journal. The latter will take all my time, and after January I intend to devote all of my attention to it."

Mr. Cheatham has been prominently identified with the cotton association since its organization, and during the recent investigation of the charges made by Representative J. Randolph Anderson, in the Georgia legislature, he played a prominent part. He was attacked for alleged speculation in the cotton futures, but was exonerated by the executive committee.

The announcement that he will retire from the cotton association following close upon a similar announcement from President Harvie Jordan will cause widespread interest as to the probable successor.

Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by all drug stores. Price, 50c.

READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

Nude Body of Dead Man.

Jackson, Tenn., Nov. 14.—The nude body of a dead man was found near Highland Park, this city, Monday. A neat suit of clothes was found near him, and no marks of violence are visible on the body save some scratches on his legs, which were probably caused by his coming in contact with a wire fence. From papers in the clothes it appears his name is Charles Isaacson, and that he was a horse trade from Chicago. He was about 50 years old.

Orino is more effective than pills or ordinary cathartics. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Epidemic of Robberies.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 14.—Simultaneously with the numerous cases of burglary and robbery in this city, come reports from throughout Allegheny and adjoining counties of like crimes accompanied by violence. In dispatches to the Associated Press on Monday night, not less than eight such acts were committed within a hundred miles of Pittsburg, some of them attended with fatal results. In line with steps taken by the Pittsburg city authorities, the officials of neighboring boroughs last night decided to take steps against any "epidemic of crime" in their bailiwicks. Monday night the local council passed an ordinance increasing the police and calling on the police to apprehend all suspicious characters. The borough council of Sharpsburg empowered the police commissioners to employ as many additional men as deemed necessary.

In Time of Peace.

In the first months of the Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cure of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by all druggists.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SKIN DISEASES
FIERY ACIDS IN THE BLOOD

All skin diseases are due to the same cause—an excess of acid in blood caused by faulty assimilation of food and poor bowel action; fiery acrid matter is forced to the surface through the pores and gla Pustules are formed, discharging a sticky fluid which dries and makes a c causing intense itching. When the crusts or scabs are scratched off skin is left raw and bleeding. Sometimes skin diseases are in the dry form, and bran-like scales come on the flesh, or the skin becomes hard and dry, often cracking, and the painful itching causes acute suffering. It does not matter how the trouble is manifested, the cause is the same—an excess of acid in the blood. Salves, powders, cooling washes, etc., while relieve the itching and give the sufferer temporary comfort, cannot cure trouble because they do not reach the acid laden blood. The best treatm for all skin diseases is S. S. S., a remedy is purely vegetable and one which acts dire on the blood with a cleansing, healing ef S. S. S. neutralizes the acids, and purifies blood so that the skin instead of being blist and burned by the fiery fluids, is nourishe a supply of cooling, healthy blood. Spe book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired will be furni without charge.

WHAT WILL THE COST BE?

The estimates for the Panama Canal for the next fiscal year have been prepared and will require $25,406,258, of which $9,609,903 is for labor, $1,385,000 for further equipment of the Panama railroad and the balance, nearly fifteen millions, for construction materials. As the pay of the laborers is $1 a day, the estimated amount will provide 30,000 laborers working 300 days in the year, but as the laborers will not average anything like 300 days' work in the yer, the real number employed will be much greater. As most of the millions already expended have been for materials, the amount now called for for that purpose would seem to be far beyond the necessities of construction. Judging by the estimates, and taking ten years to complete the canal, the cost will far exceed the amount that the administration told us the canal would cost.

As President Roosevelt has given up the work of making the "dirt fly" and is now about to let the building of the canal by contract, there will be a great incentive for fraud and grafting, so how much the canal will cost the people of the United States, under this erratic change of plans of Republican administration, before it is completed, is what no fellow can figure on. It is quite likely that after the contracts are let there will be a disagreement with the contractors, involving prolonged and expensive litigation, and the work will probably have to be completed by the army engineers. This is what the Republicans call "doing things."

The evolutionists have for a long time been trying to find the missing link—just where the ape drops his caudal appendage and turns to a man. They have never been able to propagate that species, but the inventor has been more fortunate, for he has found the missing link in the farm implement business. The time was when the small farmer boy's dreams were haunted with the thought of harrowing time, and when it did come he felt at night like he was worn off up to the knees, but that time is past. Now the old man can harrow seated on his harrow cart, and do better work and with all ease. This implement milks the cows without a pain or an ache and empties the slop to the hogs without a murmuring word, after a hard day's work has been done.

The old man may not recall all the experiences, all the struggles and triumphs of his early manhood, but every feature of his childhood home, every little playhouse that he helped his sister to build, is a photograph on his heart's tablets and can never fade away. Perhaps the golden light of eternity will not dim the brightness of that picture. What else the heart may forget, it cannot forget the place of its birth; it cannot forget the little broken cart, the sled and the kite, the sister's fond caress, the brother's generous aid, the father's counsel, the mother's anxious prayers.

One of the novelties during the Christmas celebration this year will be artificial Christmas trees. The imitation is so exact a production of the real article that it is difficult to tell the difference between the two. It is said that during the past quarter of a century by destruction the small Northern woods are becoming depopulated of small trees and that it is now necessary to resort to something to take the place of the hundreds of thousands of trees that have been used in the years that have passed.

A crop that will produce $15,400 to the acre has been discovered in Brazil, according to a report to the department of commerce and labor from United States Consul-General George E Anderson at Rio de Janeiro. Governor Broward has issued his proclamation appointing Thursday, November 29th, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. He recommends to all the people of this State that on that day, in devout assemblies in their respective places of worship, and in glad gatherings around family firesides, they give thanks to Almighty God for the prosperity which fills our land with plenty, and for a civilization which endears and consecrates associations of home.

The price of pig iron has advanced nearly 50 per cent since last spring and the buyers are running over each other in their eagerness to secure supplies. Still the Republican leaders refuse to allow the tariff to be revised so that foreign iron could come in and relieve this extraordinary demand, and so help the people who are paying high prices for everything into which iron and steel enter.

Too many of our young people fail in showing considerate attention, and too often do not fully appreciate the self-sacrificing love and benign presence of mother. Like the air and the sunlight, she and her tender ministries are received and looked upon as a matter of fact. When she is at rest in the home of the soul, this thoughtless negligence will cost them many a tear.

"The United States will not withdraw from Cuba so long as American interests there need protection," says The New York Tribune. England feels the same way about her stay in Egypt.

BALL FIELD STORIES

ODD INCIDENT THAT ONCE WON A GAME IN CHICAGO.

A Bucket of Paint Helped the Orioles to Capture the National League Pennant—The Importance of a "Color Scheme" In Batting.

One of the oddest things that ever happened on a ball field took place on the west side grounds, in Chicago, in a game against New York. Anson's men were playing the Giants, and the victory hung in the balance until in the ninth inning, with the score even, Bill Lange faced Jouet Meekin and rampsed a certain double to center. There were two out, and the crowd rose with a yell of delight when Lange smote the ball, which rolled past Van Haltren.

That ball rolled on and finally disappeared. Van Haltren was on top of it, but instead of picking it up he suddenly threw himself flat on the ground, rammed his right arm into the earth and commenced reaching. Lange meantime kept on. He turned second, raced on to third, gave a look outward and then sprinted for home, scoring the winning run.

The ball had rolled into a hole in the ground from which a post had been pulled that morning, and Van Haltren had been able only to reach it with the tips of his fingers. The next day the hole was filled in.

Upon what small things the results of baseball depend can be guessed when it is known that a forty-five cent bucket of paint won the National league pennant for Baltimore two years in succession. The men who composed the three times champion Orioles all admit the fact that the bucket of paint had more to do with their pennant winning than anything else.

The facts are these: The Orioles were not hitting. They could not find out why until one day Willie Keeler remarked that the ball when pitched from the pitcher's box was the same color as the center field fence and that the ball was lost to them against the dark background. The players set themselves down to figure it out, and in the end they figured that the reason they were not hitting was because there was a lack of relief in the color scheme of the grounds. The bat boy was sent in a hurry for a pot of white paint and a patch of the fence in center field exactly on a line with the pitcher's box, and the plate was daubed white. The paint made a difference of nearly forty points per man in their batting averages that season, and they won the pennant.

After that the space in center on most of the big league ball grounds was kept clear or painted in some color that would assist the team in its hitting.

The color scheme in baseball is more important than the casual observer would suppose. For instance, the Polo grounds are one of the hardest grounds in the world for an outfielder. Back of the grand stand rises a huge bluff—"Coogan's bluff"—and the stand is built partly on the side of the hill. Naturally the shadow of the stand and the bluff lies heavy over the field as far out as second base in the late afternoon, and the outfielders have great difficulty in seeing the ball until it rises out of the shadow and above the sky line. The players learn to judge balls by the way they sound against the bat, but visiting players at the Polo grounds have a hard time judging line drives.

For years the New York players have had the advantage because of the color scheme of their grounds. In center field is a panel of color to relieve the batter's eye and show the ball in relief against it, while to mitigate the effects of the shadow sections of the front of the stand and even the bowlders on the hillside have been painted.

Those mechanical aids for batting are great things. Almost every home team has its grounds arranged for relief in color, so that they can by looking at a certain spot be certain to see the ball. It is not necessary for the ball to rise against the relief background, but it is necessary for the player's eye to be filled with the color, so that when he looks at the ball it stands out in relief against the color which still is imprinted on the retina of his eye.

One of the best hitting pitchers that ever lived, Walter Thornton, who was driven out of baseball because of the personal dislike of an official of the National league to him, had a scheme which worked well and which he claimed aided him in batting. He simply sat and held his fingers tight against his eyes for several minutes before going to bat. Shutting out all light, he claimed, rested his eyes after pitching a hard inning, and he went in to bat with eyes fresh and steady.

And how he did hit them! How he did hit them!

Pietro Gladiator Browning tried every treatment possible for his eyes to keep them clear. Smoking a cigarette on the bench was one of his ideas, and he carried an eye wash with him which he poured into his eyes just before going to bat.

Most of the schemes of players to keep their "eyes in," as they say, are ridiculous, but there is no reason why a lot of players should not follow literally the advice of the bleacherites and "see an oculist." Any good oculist can devise a color scheme that will help the batter.—Hugh S. Fullerton in Washington Star.

THE HORSE A COWARD.

He Labors For Us Because We Make Him and He Fears to Rebel.

Imprimis, the horse is a coward—nature made him so—an unreasoning coward, who fears everything with which he is unfamiliar; nothing, however horrible, to which association has accustomed him; a creature given over to sudden and uncontrollable panics and in their paroxysms stopping at no injury to self or to those who cherish him. His overpowering instinct in such cases is flight, frequently, but not always, associated with a determination to clear himself from any hampering surroundings. He has no feelings of revenge unless trained to cunning by the abuse or the mistakes of mankind, and when these prevail he rarely wreaks his vengeance upon any particular individual, but upon humanity in general, with no regard for age or sex.

The sentiment of revenge is so usually associated with cowardice that it may almost be classed as a phase of that instinct. Cowardice manifests itself in equine connection in many ways—with one it is terror of the dark, which will make him kick his stall all night, doing himself possibly serious injury, yet in nine cases out of ten a light left in the stable will so completely reassure him that he will not lift a foot. Another is alarmed at blowing paper, yet stands yawning while cannon are fired in his face. It is this very attribute of cowardice which enables us to handle the animal as we do, to train him to our will and for our purpose, which makes him, once he is thoroughly deceived and intimidated, the useful servant we find him, not a willing slave, but one who fears again to tempt reprisals which have always proved effective, and who labors for us because he has been made to do so and fears to rebel. Give to the most docile the idea that he may successfully disobey, and, presto, you shall discover another attribute of the coward, for your steed forthwith becomes a bully, and a very dangerous one, since each little act of rebellion which succeeds awakens him to the idea that he need not obey and that in power and will he is superior. Forthwith disaster impends.—F. M. Ware in Outing Magazine.

Always Was Sick.

When a man says he always was sick, troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup? Such a man exists. Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: 'For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me.' Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Masculine Raiment.

Until the last century, in variety and magnificence, the human male followed the rule of the lower animals that the male shall predominate in brilliance. No woman has ever ruled through pure modishness. There has never been a feminine counterpart of Beau Brummel. All varieties of exquisite are male, whether dandy, macaroni or beau, and not because they are exceptions to the general rule of sobriety, but because of a superior originality and more forcible and distinguished expression. In the point of extravagance there has never been (until the last century) any difference between male and female costume. The Duke of Buckingham took twenty-seven suits of clothes to Paris in 1625, one of white uncut velvet set all over with diamonds, worth £14,000. He also wore a diamonded feather and diamond buttons and earrings. A curious fashion for men prevailed in 1612 of ornamenting the ear with strings of black velvet ribbon, also of placing a rose behind the ear.—London Saturday Review.

The Best Thing He Said.

An entertainer and humorist one afternoon recently had just made his bow and was about to begin, when a cat walked in and sat down on the stage. With quick wit he said severely, "You get out; this is a monologue, not a catalogue," which was unanimously voted the best hit of his entertainment.—Christian Register.

No Case of Pneumonia on Record.

We do not know of a single instance where a cough or cold resulted in pneumonia or consumption when Foley's Honey and Tar had been taken. It cures coughs and colds perfectly, so do not take chances with some unknown preparation which may contain opiates, which cause consumption, a condition that retards recovery from a cold. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tacket of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood, which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored, and as time has proven, permanently cured." Guaranteed for sore lungs, coughs and colds, at all drug stores. Price, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Illness Approaching Climax.

Willemstadt, Nov. 14.—The latest advices received here from Caracas confirm previous reports to the effect that President Castro's illness is approaching a climax and that his physicians believe it is impossible for him to recover. The Venezuela rebel leader Montilla, who is again in arms, has twice defeated government troops and has threatened to pillage the town of Barquesimeto. Revolutionary movements are feared in case of Castro's death.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation involving the removal of a malignant tumor as large as my hand from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Senkel of Miletus, W. Va. "Permanent use of the salve completely cured it." Cures cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at all druggists'.

Strike is Now on in Mobile.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 14.—The open shop policy among the building contractors of this city went into effect and all the firms in the building trades carried out the letter, and over 1,500 men are idle. One of the firms gave in to the men later.

Croup.

A reliable medicine and one that should be kept in the home for immediate use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough appears. For sale by all druggists.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Will Take Important Post.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Rear Admiral W. H. Brownson, who has just taken command of the American naval forces in the east, will, it is understood, soon be recalled to take what has come to be regarded as the most important post in the navy, namely, chief of the bureau of navigation, to succeed Rear Admiral Converse when the latter retires from that office which it is expected will occur about the time that Secretary Bonaparte becomes attorney general.

Enters Armor Plate Field.

Marristown, Pa., Nov. 14.—The Alanwood Iron and Steel company of Conshohocken has decided to enter the armour plate field and bid for armor plate contracts against the other companies now furnishing the material to the navies of the world. The company has purchased the realty of the Conshohocken Quarry company, including the village of Connaughttown, and will erect an armor plate mill on the newly acquired land.

Mute Talked Before Death.

Huntsville, Ala., Nov. 14.—Mrs. Alice Thornton, aged 25 years, died at the home of her father, Mr. Strickland, on Douglass Hill. The young woman had been deaf and dumb from birth and on the day of her death she talked in delirium. This remarkable circumstance greatly excited the family. The body was shipped to Aragon, Ga.

Be Charitable

To your horses as well as to yourself. You need not suffer from pains of any sort—your horses need not suffer. Try a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It cures all pains. J. M. Roberts, Bakersfield, Mo., writes: "I have used your Liniment for ten years and find it to be the best I have ever used for man or beast." Sold by W. M. Johnson

Domestic Affairs Caused Trouble.

Memphis, Nov. 14.—A special from Houston, Miss., says that A. C. Clements was shot by Hugh Austin near there Sunday. The men met in the road and Clements, it is alleged, fired two barrels of a shotgun at Austin, both shots missing their mark. Austin then used a knife and pistol on Clements with deadly effect. Domestic affairs are given as the cause of the trouble.

There's No Use.

Talking, you can't beat Herbine for the liver. The greatest regulator ever offered to suffering humanity. If you suffer from liver complaint, if you are bilious and fretful, it's your liver, and Herbine will put it in its proper condition. A positive cure for constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, and all ills due to a torpid liver. Try a bottle and you will never use anything else. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Graham Killed While Hunting.

West Point, Ga., Nov. 14.—While duck hunting on the Chattahoochee river, near Riverdale, Ala., Hugh H. Graham was accidentally shot and killed by A. K. Anthony. They had been out all day and had just located a drove of ducks. The men were on opposite sides of the river, when Anthony fired. Part of Graham's skull was torn off by the shot, he dying instantly.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Than of All Others Put Together.

Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best of results." For sale by all druggists.

"They Are Giving Money Away Free."

We all know and have heard of various plans of advertising and methods of doing business so as to secure the largest amount of cash business possible, but it is not often that any merchant is found who gives away his goods free just to advertise his business. But while it may not be generally known, yet it is a positive fact that there is a firm in Gainesville who are giving away one entire day's cash business every month.

Saunders & Earle have installed this method to increase their cash sales and are giving away all the cash sales of one whole day out of each month. They give a check with each purchase, which is issued by their National Cash Register, which shows the date, the number and amount of the sale and the initial of the clerk who makes the sale. These checks are given as a receipt for cash paid and should show the exact amount of the money you pay. At the end of each month they announce a certain day, and when checks bearing that date are presented they pay their face value in cash, and in this way they are making their customers a present of one day's cash receipts.

This is an entirely new plan and is a fines one, and it is the best opportunity to get your groceries free that we have ever heard of.

There are many people in Gainesville who could buy their goods for cash just as well as on thirty days' time. They buy on credit for the reason that it is a little more convenient and they have no inducements to pay cash.

This enterprising firm have decided to offer this great inducement for cash business and they should receive a large cash business as a result.

Published Twice a Week--Monday and Thursday

T DAY OF THE VETERANS' REUNION

...ral Jewell of Orlando Elected Commander of Division.

...TION WAS UNANIMOUS

...ral Jewell Delivered a Short But ...pressive Address of Acceptance, ...d Was Heartily Cheered—Grand ... Concluded the Ceremonies.

...th his old gray-clad comrades ...ering madly and tossing their hats ...o the air in bursts of enthusiasm, ...adier-General William H. Jewell ...rlando, for ten years the com...er of the Third Brigade, was ...esday morning unanimously ...d Major-General, commanding ...orida Division, United Confed... Veterans.

...n all it was a splendid tribute to ...beloved commander. Veterans ...ghout the hall were choked with ...tion, and General Jewell, himself, ...en he began his speech of accept..., was almost overcome, his voice ...oked, and his eyes filled with tears ... was a beautiful scene, and this, the ...losing feature of the sixteenth annual ...eunion of the Florida Division, will ...long be remembered by every old soldier present as one of its most memorable pictures, a picture painted in the warm colors of love and affection and popularity, a splendid tribute paid by brave and heroic men to one of the bravest of their numbers.

All other business had been finished and General Fleming, when he called for the election of a Major-General for the ensuing year, read again the Ocala resolution. He pointed out that this resolution, strictly speaking, was not a bar to the re-election of a commander, but that, believing that this was the idea which the soldiers of Florida had in mind when they adopted it, he felt that he must decline to allow his own name to be put in nomination, as some of his friends had wished him to do. This statement touched the hearts of the old soldiers, and they applauded the speaker vigorously.

Jewell is Nominated.

An instant later and Brigadier-General W. L. Wittich, former commander of the First Brigade, took the floor. Briefly he put in nomination the name of General Jewell, the senior brigadier of the Division. The nomination was greeted with applause, coming from all parts of the hall, showing that the Veterans present approved in every way the suggestion of General Wittich

An instant later Brigadier General Fred L. Robertson, Assistant Adjutant-General of the United Confederate Veterans and on the staff of General Stephen D. Lee, seconded the nomination. Comrade Cox followed, with a beautiful eulogy of General Jewell, and then, old soldier after old soldier jumped to his feet and the seconding speeches came thick and fast.

Suddenly someone in the body jumped to his feet and shouted the motion that it be made unanimous. A second came almost instantly and the motion was carried.

Enthusiasm Was High.

Then Newsum's First Regiment Band, which has furnished the music that has marked the reunion, took its cue and the strains of "Dixie" filled the large hall. Enthusiasm here burst all bounds. Old soldiers jumped to their feet and began cheering. Hats were tossed in the air, canes beat on the floor, and those who could not make their voices heard stamped with their feet and thumped on the seats with whatever they could lay their hands on.

General Fleming, when order had been restored, appointed General Wittich and Comrade Cox a committee to escort the newly elected Major-General to the rostrum, and as the popular and well-beloved brigade commander marched forward the enthusiasm again burst all bounds and the veterans cheered and applauded, applauded and cheered.

General Jewell took his place just to the rear of General Fleming, who, in a few eloquent and appropriate words, thanked the old soldiers for the support that they had given him during the year that had just passed, expressed his pride in being a Confederate soldier, and asked that the same hearty support be given General Jewell that had been extended him. He then formally withdrew as Division commander and turned the office over to the newly elected Major-General.

General Jewell Accepts.

"My comrades: There are but three words that can come from my heart today, and they are 'I thank you.' Simple as they are, they come straight from the heart, and when they have been said all has been said. I can say no others, and so I say again I thank you for this signal honor that you have conferred upon me.

"When I marched with Barksdale, or when I rode with Hampton, I never dreamed that this honor or a similar honor would ever be mine. I, like you, my comrades, was a private soldier. And when I read the splendid tributes that have been paid to the private soldiers of the Confederate armies I am proud that I was a private soldier. It is a grand honor, a high honor.

"This is the day of the private soldier. Private soldiers have been elected to the command of Divisions in other States. And you have chosen me, a private soldier, to lead you during the ensuing year. My one regret, my comrades, is that I must leave my beloved comrades of the Third Brigade. They asked not, when they chose me as their commander, if I had held a commission. They asked only if I had done my duty, and, thank God, my answer could come clear and true. You, too, have asked no other question than did they.

"I appreciate this honor you have conferred upon me. I thank you again, and, from the bottom of my heart, I pray God bless you and keep you every one, my comrades."

Who Jewell Is.

Major-General William H. Jewell, of Orlando, commanding the Florida Division, United Confederate Veterans, was born in Massachusetts.

Early in life he moved to Vicksburg, Mississippi, and was residing there at the time of the war. When war was declared and the call for troops was issued, he enlisted as a private in the Twenty-first Mississippi, Ben Humphreys commanding, in Barkdale's Brigade.

With this command he served until after the battle of Gettysburg, when he was transferred to Wade Hampton's command, and, at the personal request of General Hampton himself, accepted a position on his staff, with the rank of captain. The captain's commission, however, was never issued. All through the war General Jewell was conspicuous for his bravery and his great kindly heart, and his lovable manner has endeared him to all who know him.

He now resides at Orlando, where he is engaged in the practice of his profession, that of an attorney. For ten years he has been the unanimous choice of the comrades of his brigade for brigadier-general, and the people of his section have honored him by twice sending him to represent them in the Legislature at Tallahassee. His friends are legion, and it can be safely said that there is no more generally beloved soldier in Florida than General Jewell.

As has been pointed out by General E. M. Law of Bartow, General Jewell fought with the Confederacy through principle alone, principle pure and unadulterated, one of his brothers having fought with the Federal troops. Every soldier here feels that the honor conferred is a merited one, an honor well bestowed and richly earned, another tribute to a brave private soldier of the Confederacy.

Fleming Is Honored.

Immediately after the election of General Jewell, on motion of Col. S. G. Bayliss, Major General Francis P. Fleming of Jacksonville was made honorary commander of the Florida Division for life, and the same honor was conferred upon all past commanders. This motion was enthusiastically and unanimously carried, and again stirred the old soldiers to cheering and tossing their hats.

General Fleming, in a few brief words, thanked his comrades for the honor conferred.

New Resolution Adopted.

A motion was made, near the close of the session, to the effect that hereafter no previous resolution be considered a bar to the re-election of a commander at the expiration of his term of office.

This resolution, after some discussion, was adopted. The way is now clear for the veterans to choose whomsoever they wish as their commander, and are no longer hampered by any resolution regarding re-election. The "Ocala resolution," which is vitiated by the one adopted this year, was to the effect that no commander should be elected for two successive terms.

Pensacola Next Year.

Pensacola was unanimously chosen as the city where the seventeenth annual reunion of the Florida Division shall be held. It was put in nomination by General Wittich, seconded by General Pasco, and, without one dissenting vote, was unanimously selected.

Ward Camp, United Confederate Veterans, of Pensacola, will be the host of the soldiers in 1907. The reunion will probably be held during the latter part of October. General Jewell suggested this, and, on behalf of Ward Camp, General Wittich assured him that his wishes would be carried out.

The exact dates for the reunion will be fixed by the Camp.

Resolutions of Respect.

On motion of General W. H. Sebring, who, though not a member of the Division, was given the privilege of the floor, a committee consisting of Major-General Francis P. Fleming, Major-General E. M. Law, Major-General W. D. Ballantine, Major-General W. H. Jewell, Brigadier-General Pasco, Brigadier-General W. L. Wittich, and Brigadier-General J. C. Davant, was appointed to draw up suitable resolutions on the death of Mrs. Varina Jefferson Davis, widow of the President of the Confederacy.

The committee is to report the resolutions to the Major-General commanding the Division, and, upon his approval thereof, they are to be spread by the Adjutant-General upon the minute books of the Division.

Shortly after noon the reunion adjourned, the closing words of General Jewell, following an earnest plea for a large Florida delegation to the general reunion in Richmond in May and June of 1907, were "Good-bye, my comrades, and may God bless and keep you all."

Ball At Night.

At night the Sponsors Ball, tendered by the local Confederate societies, was given. The music was furnished by Newsum's First Regiment Band, and the occasion proved a brilliant social event.

Second Brigade Reunion.

The chief feature was the election of officers. General John C. Davant of Brooksville was unanimously re-elected Brigadier-General Commanding, and Col. A. D. Williams of Jacksonville re-appointed Adjutant-General and Chief-of-Staff.

Major-General W. H. Jewell, commanding the Florida Division, United Confederate Veterans, announced that Col. Robert J. Magill of Jacksonville had been re-appointed Adjutant-General and Chief-of-Staff, and had accepted the appointment.

The appointment of the Jacksonville veteran to this high position comes as a slight recognition of his sterling services to the Division during the year, which he served as Adjutant-General under General Fleming. By his untiring efforts he has put the Division in better financial condition than it has been in years, and in other lines his efforts have been equally successful.

Business duties in Jacksonville inclined Colonel Magill at first to decline re-appointment, but the urgent solicitations of General Jewell combined with that of many of the old comrades of the Chief-of-Staff, led him to reconsider and he has announced that he will serve. He is being congratulated on every hand, and it is the unanimous opinion of the old soldiers still here that this appointment, the first official act of General Jewell as Division Commander, is one which will redound to the best interests of the entire Division.

The report of Adjutant Magill was most encouraging. He stated that a year ago, when he took charge of the affairs of the Division, there was only $3.18 in the treasury. He managed to pay the bills, and now has on hand about $18. This report shows that Col. Magill has not neglected the trust which was reposed in him.

The reunion of 1906 was a great success, and those present will remember it for a long time.

Tuesday Night's Program.

The following musical program was rendered at the Kirby Smith Chapter reception Tuesday evening:

Violin duet, Variations—Misses McCreary and Evans.

Piano duet—Misses Fennell and Burkhim.

Vocal solo—Miss Brown.

Piano duet—Mrs. Bennett and Miss Bennett.

Quartette—Misses Avera, Lewis, Bennett and Avera (in costume).

Piano solo—Miss Brown.

Recitation—Miss Streeper.

Piano solo—Miss Burkhim.

Recitation, "Sword of Lee"—Miss Julia Wainwright.

Quartette, "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground"—Messrs. Gammon, Canova, Fisher and Bennett.

The piano work of Misses Fennell and Burkhim was superb. They are two of Gainesville's most competent musicians, and general favorites in this line. The number by Misses Avera, Lewis, Bennett and Avera proved one of the best on the program, and they were heartily applauded. The vocal solo of Miss Brown was also good, and she was heartily encored.

In addition to the regular program Rev. D. L. Branning of Waldo, an old Confederate, rendered a new version of Dixie. It was a vocal solo, in which he accompanied himself on the violin, and received hearty applause. So impressed were the Veterans that Mr. Branning was prevailed upon to print the song, which he consented to do. Copies may be had at five cents each by calling at Matheson's shoe store or addressing Mr. Branning at Waldo, the proceeds to go to the Dickinson monument fund.

CHILLING OF EXPLOSIVE.

Was All that Saved General Rennenkampff.

Irkutsk, Siberia, Nov. 14.—It was owing to the chilling of the explosive that the bomb thrown at General Rennenkampff, governor of Trans-Baikalia, Monday, failed to injure him. Rennenkampff's two aides de camp escaped with slight concussions. The general has been on the terrorists' death list on account of his severity in repressing mutinies and armed revolts in Trans-Baikalia in December.

The would-be assassin lay in wait for the general on Amur street, where he is accustomed to promenade and as the general approached the terrorist rose from a bench, threw the bomb and started to run, but was immediately captured, the general aiding in seizing him.

A revolver was found on the prisoner's person. Within four hours after throwing the bomb he was put on trial before a drumhead courtmartial. The prisoner, who had not been identified, admits he is a member of the Socialist revolution organization.

AUGUSTA MAN IS ALLEGED DEFAULTER

Indicted for Embezzlement From Building-Loan Association.

FAST LIVING CAUSED SHORTAGE

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 14.—A case of alleged embezzlement similar in many respects to the case of T. W. Alexander, who pleaded guilty in the superior court a few days ago, is that of E. R. Derry, charged with the embezzlement of $100,000 from the Augusta Real Estate and Building association. The case will probably come up for trial in the superior court at the beginning of next week's session, as several indictments against Derry charging him with embezzlement have been returned by the grand jury.

Derry, more than 60 years old, of influential family, was secretary and treasury of the Augusta Real Estate and Building association, a corporate body, with a capital stock of $100,000. The purpose of the association was to lend money and purchase real estate and sell it afterward at a profit. The president and directors of the association had no active connection with the association, and all the actual business was entrusted to Derry. Last March the association suddenly became financially embarrassed, and upon examination of the accounts it was found to be more than $100,000 in debt, with no money with which to pay the overhanging obligations.

The directors then filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy, and the creditors of the association received practically nothing. Derry admitted at the time that he spent the money, although he claimed that he had no idea of stealing it, and said that he had spent it in fast living. He was not arrested, which was chiefly due to the reputation he had borne all his life for honesty and integrity, and also because of the advanced age of the man. A few days ago the grand jury of Richmond county, while making rigid investigation in all the cases that came under their consideration, indicted Derry on several charges of embezzlement.

The sheriff of the county went to the home of Derry's son-in-law, where the former was living, and placed him under arrest, while the alleged embezzler was in bed sick with the infirmities incident to advanced years. Derry gave bond at once for $10,000, and, if physically able to be will appear in the superior court next week and answer the charges preferred against him.

Like Alexander, Derry was one of the most highly regarded men in Augusta, and business men who held stock in the Augusta Real Estate and Building association caused many men to lose large sums of money, and very nearly resulted in several of the directors of the association going into bankruptcy.

It is probable that the people of this section had even more confidence in Derry than they had in Alexander, because of the fact that Derry was supposed to be very devout in his religious duty.

The loss of nearly $200,000 through the instrumentality of Alexander, and $100,000 through Derry is a hard blow to the merchants and business men of this section.

LITTLE BABY'S AWFUL HUMOR

Thin Skin Formed Over Body and Under it Was Watery Blood—When Washed it Would Burst and Break—Suffered for Weeks—Now Sound and Well—

CURED IN ONE WEEK BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"When my little girl baby was one week old she had a skin disease. A thin skin formed over her body and under it was watery blood, and when she was washed it would burst and break. She was in that condition for weeks, and I tried everything I could think of, but nothing did her any good. When she was three months old I took her to San Antonio to see a doctor, but the doctor we wanted to see was not at home, so my sister gave me a cake of Cuticura Soap and half a box of Cuticura Ointment, and told me to use them, which I did in time. I used them three times, and the humor began to fade, and in one week she was sound and well, and it has never returned since. I think every mother should keep the Cuticura Remedies in the house. Yours truly, Mrs. H. Aaron, Benton, Texas, July 3, 1905."

WEEPING ECZEMA

"I have used the Cuticura Remedies for some years past. The Cuticura Soap we are never without, and the Ointment is the finest in the world. It has done wonders in curing my little girl of weeping eczema. Respectfully, Mrs. J. E. Mersdorff, 310 W. 3rd St., Madison, Ind., June 27, 1905."

Whereupon the Board adjourned.

Cole Bros'. Big Circus.

No matter what engagements you may have made for Thursday, Nov. 22, the day and date that Cole Bros'. United Shows will exhibit in Gainesville, break them now. If you cannot attend the afternoon or evening performance you can ill afford to miss viewing the gorgeous street parade at 10 a. m. and the thrilling free out-of-doors exhibition to be given immediately afterwards on the show grounds and again at 6:30 p. m. If necessary, miss former, but not latter, which will prove the biggest surprise treat of the year. M'lle Zizzi, one of the fairest daughters of France, has been especially engaged by Cole Brothers to "span death's arch" upon a slender bicycle and this she does twice daily. This is an act which has never been attempted before by any woman, even the most fearless of whom gasp with horror every time they witness it. What no other lady cyclist would ever dream of trying, M'lle Zizzi accomplishes every week-day morning and evening with as much unconcern as the average person would exhibit when partaking of dinner. Ascending a tall fragile wooden incline plane to the top, mounting a light bike and riding toward the earth at terrific speed, then arching a 55-foot death gap and landing upon the other side in safety is the frightful feat executed by this intrepid beauty. There is absolutely no charge made; it is presented in the open air as stated above, free to all who will visit the show lot.

CATTLE SHIPMENT TO STATE FAIR

Spring Park Stock Farm Will be Well Represented at Tampa.

IS A MAGNIFICENT HERD

From Tuesday's Daily Sun.

The cattle and stock of the Spring Park Stock Farm Company intended for the State Fair were brought to this city Monday and loaded, and left on the evening of the same day for Tampa. Three cars were required for the accommodation of the shipment, which comprises two carloads of fine Hereford cattle and one carload of registered hogs, etc.

This fine stock attracted a great deal of attention while being driven through the streets and while being loaded into the cars. It is indeed a fine collection, in perfect condition, and it goes without saying that the herd will be the center of attraction in the live stock department at Florida's great show.

Manager Callison is proud of his exhibit, and he has a right to be, for no finer average can be found in the South. Many of them are prize winners at various State fairs throughout the country, one taking the first premium in his class at the World's Fair, St. Louis, and the herd capturing numbers of prizes and diplomas at the State Fair last year.

A competent force accompanied the cattle, who will look after their needs. Manager Callison also went along on the same train, which is expected to reach Tampa this morning.

Manager Callison, who is also county Fair Commissioner, states that all shipments have gone forward, and will be in proper place by noon on Wednesday, when the machinery of the big State Fair will be set in motion.

THE FIRST COLD SNAP.

Government Thermometer Went to 29, But No Damage Done.

Tuesday was really the first cold snap of the season, and inasmuch as the weather has been so warm and balmy up to that time, the sudden change was felt, and overcoats and wraps were in evidence.

While the government thermometer went down as low as 29 degrees, truckers declare that they do not believe tender vegetation is hurt, and are contemplating a good and profitable yield. Thin ice was observed in several places in Gainesville.

FIRST DAY'S WORK OF THE VETERANS

From Wednesday's Daily Sun.

Tuesday opened bright, cold and clear, which made an ideal day for the opening of the exercises of the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, Florida Division. It was a day appreciated by everyone, after the long, hot spell, and especially was it invigorating to the Veterans, who moved about the streets with alacrity, mingling with their comrades of trying days. One old soldier was heard to remark, "This weather makes me feel young and full of inspiration again, as it reminds me of the autumn days in Virginia when we boys were fighting the Yankees to a finish." It was indeed an interesting sight to witness the mingling and intermingling, the hand-shaking and greetings of the old soldiers, and even the younger set, who knew nothing about nor could appreciate the trying days with which their fathers and grandfathers had to contend, seemed to relish the situation. High officials in rank mingled with the modest contingency of the file, and all were equal, chatting together.

In accordance with the program, the meeting was called to order at 11 o'clock a. m. at the Tabernacle, Major-General Francis P. Fleming of Jacksonville presiding. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rt. Rev. E. G. Weed, Chaplain-General of the Florida Division, which was followed by an address of welcome in behalf of the city by Attorney B. T. Ellis. Major Horatio Davis, commander of Stonewall Camp, Gainesville, was to have made the address of welcome in behalf of the Veterans of his Camp, but owing to his indisposition, this number was filled admirably and in a most interesting manner by Hon. Christopher Matheson, a member of the Sons of Veterans.

The response to the address of welcome was made by Brigadier-General J. C. Davant of Brooksville, commanding the Second Brigade. It was a masterful effort, full of interest and enthusiasm, and held the closest attention of the large audience, composed of Veterans, Sons of Veterans, United Daughters of the Confederacy and citizens.

At the conclusion of General Davant's address the session adjourned until 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session opened at 3 o'clock, the large building well filled, by the singing of "Dixie" by Miss Lovie Goode, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Goode, and a charming daughter of the South who has the good fortune of a magnificent voice. The Veterans cheered heartily and with much enthusiasm over the rendition of this song.

Following this song came the annual address by Hon. H. H. Buckman of Jacksonville, Senator-elect from Duval county, and one of the most fluent orators in the State. Col. Buckman's remarks were confined to the Confederacy and the heroism of its soldiers, and for three-quarters of an hour he commanded the closest attention of his hearers, being frequently applauded. He is the son of a Veteran, and has always manifested a deep interest in the Confederate Veterans' organization.

The Kirby Smith Banquet.

Probably the most enjoyable event of the entire reunion to the Veterans was the reception tendered by Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., which was given at the Tabernacle in their honor Tuesday night. All Veterans and their wives, members of the G. A. R. and their wives, Sons of Veterans, Daughters of the Confederacy, sponsors and maids of honor were invited, with the result that a large crowd was present, and the evening was spent in such a delightful manner as will be remembered for a long time. A fine musical program was rendered, after which the time was spent in good fellowship, the great crowd mingling together, shaking hands and getting acquainted. It was apparent that, at the closing, there were no strangers in that large assemblage.

At the close of the musical program Gen. W. H. Sebring announced that Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., had endowed a scholarship in the University of Florida, to be awarded to the deserving and needy son of a Confederate veteran, that the program was now closed and the audience would mingle with each other and partake of refreshments.

During this occasion refreshments of chicken salad, coffee, etc., daintily prepared by the ladies, were served, and it is needless to add relished after the hard day's work of the Veterans. The ladies of Kirby Smith acted as a committee of the whole in the preparation of this reception, and are due a great deal of credit for its excellent success.

The following delegates have been reported to the reunion from the various camps so far:

Mrs. Henrietta A. S. Marsh, 769 W. 16th St., Los Angeles, Cal., President Woman's Benevolent Ass'n, writes:

"I suffered with la grippe for seven weeks, and nothing I could do or take helped me until I tried Peruna.

"I felt at once that I had at last secured the right medicine and I kept steadily improving. Within three weeks I was fully restored, and I am glad that I gave that truly great remedy a trial. I will never be without it again."

In a letter dated August 31, 1904, Mrs. Marsh says: "I have never yet heard the efficacy of Peruna questioned. We still use it. I traveled through Kentucky and Tennessee three years ago, where I found Peruna doing its good work. Much of it is being used here also."—Henrietta A. S. Marsh.

SAD DROWNING OF THOMAS PITTS

Well Known Young Man of This City Met Death at Egmont Key.

Information has reached this city of the drowning of Thomas Pitts, which occurred at Egmont Key, near Tampa, Sunday night.

Deceased was a son of T. W. Pitts of this city, and was about twenty-eight years of age. He was formerly engaged in business at Fort White, but joined the army, and was in command of the pumping station when he met his death.

A letter from Mr. Pitts, who is now in Tampa, bears information to the effect that his son and the post surgeon went out in a naptha launch. The weather was so heavy that the launch was swamped, but the men managed to reach land, after a great struggle, which nearly cost them their lives.

There was a strait between the island where Mr. Pitts and his friend landed, about two hundred yards. Mr. Pitts was anxious to report for duty at the regular hour, and attempted to swim, which was the cause of his death.

Deceased was well known in this city and section, and friends will regret very much this sudden end.

The body was recovered Monday afternoon and taken to Tampa by an escort of honor from the barracks of Fort DeSoto. The interment was in Novelland Park cemetery.

The editor of The Rural Retreat (Va.) Times says he "wants to die when he can no longer enjoy sitting in the flickering firelight squeezing a pretty girl's hand."

All the proposed amendments to the Constitution were voted down at the recent election. It therefore seems that the people are tired of the fundamental law being tinkered with.

The Tampa Daily Herald and Daily Globe have been consolidated and are now issued under the name of The Tampa Evening News. In addition to the afternoon edition a mammoth Sunday morning edition will be issued. The new corporation has ample capital behind it and its success is assured.

There was an error of ten votes in the total given for the drainage amendment in Sunday's Sun. The total should have been 666 for and 185 against the amendment, making the majority against drainage 481. So far as heard from officially Alachua county gave the largest majority of any county in the State against the proposition.

The Jacksonville Carnival which closed Saturday night was the most successful one ever held there. The weather was perfect throughout the week, the amusement features were of a high class, and the attendance was so large that at times the people could not be accommodated. The association conducting the Carnival is to be congratulated upon its great success.

The Ocala Banner seems to think that the people did not understand the question when they voted against drainage. Evidently The Banner has a poor opinion of Governor Broward's ability to explain, for if the people were left in the dark as to the drainage amendment it was not because the Governor did not do his best to convince them that it was to their interest to vote for it.

The young men whose pockets are filled with cigarette wrappers, mustache combs, finger nail cleaners, miniature curling irons, looking glass, etc., and have their mothers crease their pants every day, are not the ones who will make promising husbands. The pockets of those who are helping to make the country bloom and causing two blades of grass to grow where God planted but one, will be found filled with barbed wire staples and different sizes of nails and screws. They are the boys the girls had better look after.

All this talk about the Everglades now being drained by taxation of the whole people is mere "bluff." The Legislature only can levy taxes, and the next Legislature is no more likely to levy a tax to drain the Everglades than it is to pass a bill requiring whites and blacks to be taught in the same school. Neither will the next Legislature pass any sort of a drainage constitutional amendment. Drainage is dead so far as the next Legislature is concerned, and as Governor Broward will not occupy the executive chair after 1908, it is quite safe to wager that drainage is dead for several years to come.

WELCOME, VETERANS!

From Tuesday's Daily Sun.

Veterans of the Confederacy! The Sun joins today with the entire people of Gainesville in extending to you a sincere and hearty welcome to our city and to the hearts and hearthstones of its citizens. Your presence among us stirs to its bottom the fountain of purest and noblest emotions, and kindles anew in every bosom the proudest and proudest patriotism that ever burned in human breast—the Southern man's love for the Southland.

Forty years have come and gone since, yielding to a superiority of resources and numbers against which no skill or courage could avail, you furled forever the Bonnie Blue Flag, and accepting as only such heroes could the fortunes of war, you turned to your ruined homes, and beating your bayonets into ploughshares, set about with a courage and a patience such as the world has rarely witnessed, to rebuild your fallen fortunes and to raise up for us, your children, on the ashes of the old this New South that stands today in its beauty and pride an imperishable monument to your patience, your invincible determination, your indomitable courage. We are proud of this New South you have given us, with its growing industries, its thrifty people, its magnificent enterprises, its teeming marts, its rich and populous cities; but dearer than life itself to every true son of this Southland are the sacred memories of the Old South, its chivalry, its heroism, its nobility, its traditions—the last representatives of which we see in you today.

The cause for which you so long and nobly fought was lost; and though there are those of us who say it was best it should have been, that right must triumph, and therefore you were wrong, yet, for ourself, we are not among that number. We prefer to think you were right, grandly, eternally right, and that the question is yet an open one awaiting a final settlement. For thirty years every opinion handed down by the Supreme Court of the United States even remotely bearing upon the question so long and so fiercely argued in that awful struggle, has been a judgment in your favor and reversing the decision at Appomattox.

We are glad to have you with us, and trust that your stay will be pleasant as in our homes you meet together to recount your experiences and live over again the evenings around the camp fires of '61 to '65.

May your lives be long precious in God's sight; and, to paraphrase O'Hara,

When the muffled drum's sad roll has beat
For you its last tattoo,
And in the camp above shall meet
Your spirits tried and true,
On Fame's eternal camping ground,
May your white tents be spread,
And Glory guard with watchful round
The bivouac of the dead.

ORGANIZATION NEEDED.

The late election may fairly be called a drawn battle, for while the Democrats lost ground in some States, they gained about 25 seats in the House of Representatives, reducing the Republican majority from over one hundred to about fifty. The general trend of the elections showed gains for the Democrats in the cities, due to the aid of organized labor, and a standstill vote in the country, which requires more information before accounting for it. It is hardly probable that farmers endorsed the standpat tariff doctrine which plunders them and enriches the trusts and corporations, yet many farmers were evidently too busy or too well satisfied to take the trouble to vote.

The more complete organization and the money of the tariff protected trusts enabled the Republicans to bring out the vote of their regular supporters, while the lack of the necessary money to pay for teams and workers led to many Democrats staying away from the polls. The result of the election therefore shows that the great need of the Democrats is a more thorough organization, and this work should at once be undertaken by the party committees who are in charge of the organization. Such work can be but very partially accomplished in the heat of a campaign, and to put it off until a presidential nomination is made is to invite another defeat.

There is no doubt that more than half the voters of the United States are either Democrats, or believe in Democratic policies, but if unorganized they cannot be brought to the polls and counted. Instead of waiting, however, for the leaders to move, the Democratic workers in every township and county should take account of stock and find out how many reliable Democrats there are in their locality and then urge action by the State committees to supply the necessary literature and arguments to win over the doubtful and independent voter.

There is lots of work to be done in the next two years, and patriotic Democrats will have to do it, and thus enthuse those who otherwise would lag in the reforms that are so much needed.

Rapid changes of temperature are hard on the toughest constitution.

BETTER DAYS COMING.

Railroad Magnate Harriman may be "above the level" of the rest of us, but it is dollars to doughnuts that he is riding for a fall. His latest attempt to rule the destinies of the Illinois Central railroad, which is about the last of the independent railroads, will, if successful, lead to his undoing, for the public will only stand about so much concentration in the hands of one man, and he is trying to overdo the thing. The magnates that control railroad combinations, the trust corporations, the express combine and others that charge "all the traffic will bear," will soon be feeling that life is hardly worth living when the long-suffering people get through with them. There will be no confiscation, no socialism, which is un-American, but taxes will have to be paid by these corporations like other people pay on the value of their property, and rates will be regulated so that surpluses will not pile up to be used for stock speculation, but there will be "equal rights to all and special privileges to none" in the days that are coming.

Governor Broward has issued his proclamation appointing Thursday, November 29th, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. He recommends to all the people of this State that on that day, in devout assemblies in their respective places of worship, and in glad gatherings around family firesides, they give thanks to Almighty God for the prosperity which fills our land with plenty, and for a civilization which endears and consecrates associations of home.

The Atlantic Wireless Company have reopened their station at La Brista, Key West, Fla. This time with redoubled energy to make it the best and most successful commercial station on the coast. The station has commenced commercial communication with all wireless-equipped ships at sea, and a heavy business with Havana is expected, owing to the cheapness and perfection of the service obtained.

The price of pig iron has advanced nearly 50 per cent since last spring and the buyers are running over each other in their eagerness to secure supplies. Still the Republican leaders refuse to allow the tariff to be revised so that foreign iron could come in and relieve this extraordinary demand, and so help the people who are paying high prices for everything into which iron and steel enter.

THE NEWS FROM MELROSE.

Death of an Estimable Lady—Return of Hunting Party—Other Notes.

Melrose, Nov. 14.—We regret to announce the death of Mrs. S. A. Ford, one of Melrose's valued old residents, who died on Saturday morning after a short illness. Mrs. Ford has lived in Melrose for over twenty-five years, and during that time won the esteem and friendship of all who knew her by her true Christian spirit and ever readiness to help others when in trouble. She was an earnest and faithful member of the M. E. church. The funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at the church, Rev. T. Sistrunk officiating, loving friends contributing an abundance of beautiful wreaths and other floral offerings. Mrs. Ford was blessed with a good and devoted son, with whom she made her home and whose wife was to her as her own daughter. The most heartfelt sympathy of the whole community is extended to Mr. E. T. Ford.

E. Whitney of Tampa, a former resident of Melrose, was in town greeting friends during the past week.

The Melrose contingent of Sheriff Fennell's hunting party returned Saturday evening tired, but happy, for their party had seven deer and numerous small game to their credit. Thanks are due to Dr. Frank McRae for generous contributions of venison to many of his friends.

A. A. McRae left yesterday for Gainesville, having been drawn on the jury for the present term of court.

N. Price has been busy during the past week shipping twelve and a half tons of cotton seed by the Steamer Alert to Jacksonville parties.

Delightful Time at Central.

Editor Sun: There was an "awful row" at Central last Saturday, November 10. Fortunately no one was injured, but none of the participants were able to eat supper Saturday night.

The cause of the "row" first saw the light at Savannah, Ga., Nov. 8, 1831.

Nine years ago later, on Nov. 26, a second cause came into existence, and the two desiring to celebrate those memorable events, called together their six children with their respective families and such a row is seldom seen, except at any Grandpa's.

No visitors were present except Miss Inez Phinney, teacher of Shiloh school, and Miss Gracie Harrell, a pupil.

Grandpa J. C. Zetrouer is as good as Santa Claus any day, the children say, so they took possession of the broad hall and piazza and indulged in such a clamor of playing, shouting and laughing that the distracted papas retreated into the shady yard to discuss politics or, perhaps, the dry weather, while the several mamas betook themselves to the dining-room, where they spread a most bountiful repast—bread and beef enough for a barbecue, some one remarked, together with game and fish, chicken, cakes, pies, salads, etc., necessary to complete the feast.

The noise did not abate until goodbyes were said, and all left Mr. and Mrs. Zetrouer to quiet meditation upon their combined birthday celebration.

Mr. Zetrouer is hale and hearty for his years, and still interested in topics of the day, while many an anecdote he tells the children of Civil War times and a Southern soldier's life, of which he knows by experience.

Such are the facts of the "row" as viewed by the REPORTER.

This year's apple crop is a big one, but your retail dealer is likely to be a long time in finding it out.

Trust to Nature.

A great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to home, office or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, in fact in every weary, thin and thin-blooded person, do their work with great difficulty. As a result fatigue comes early, is extreme and lasts long. The demand for nutritive aid is ahead of the supply. To insure perfect health every tissue, bone, nerve and muscle should take from the blood certain materials and return to it certain others. It is necessary to prepare the stomach for the work of taking up from the food what is necessary to make good, rich, red blood. We must go to Nature for the remedy. There were certain roots known to the Indians of this country before the advent of the whites which later came to the knowledge of the settlers and which are now growing rapidly in professional favor for the cure of obstinate stomach and liver troubles. These are found to be safe and yet certain in their cleansing and invigorating effect upon the stomach, liver and blood. These are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Bloodroot, Mandrake root. Then there is Black Cherrybark. The medicinal principles residing in these native roots when extracted with glycerine as a solvent make the most reliable and efficient stomach tonic and liver invigorator, when combined in just the right proportions, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Where there is bankrupt vitality—such as nervous exhaustion, bad nutrition—and thin blood, the body acquires vigor and the nerves, blood and all the tissues feel the favorable effect of this sovereign remedy.

Although some physicians have been aware of the high medicinal value of the above mentioned plants, yet few have used pure glycerine as a solvent and usually the doctors' prescriptions called for the ingredients in varying amounts, with alcohol.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is a scientific preparation compounded of the glyceric extracts of the above mentioned vegetable ingredients and contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs.

The fire spread to the property of the Mobile Coal company, where the warehouses caught fire, but they were extinguished. Sparks carried by the high winds set fire to the mill of the mobile Hardwood company on the river front, south of the Mobile Coal company, destroying the plant ya...

The northbound passenger train on the Louisville and Nashville rail...d, was stopped south of the fire, and the passengers from Mobile walked to the city.

The fire spread along the river front being driven by the high north winds, which were blowing half a gale, and the fire threatened the Mobile marine ways and the Sullivan milling plant, one of the largest in this section.

FEARFUL ACCIDENT NEAR HIGH SPRINGS

STRUCK IT WITH A HAMMER

Did Not Realize Danger of Contents And Endeavored to Break It Open With Fatal Result—Mother and Brother Near But Not Injured.

High Springs, Nov. 13.—A shocking and fatal event occurred a few miles from High Springs Friday. The young daughter of Martin Smith exploded a railroad torpedo, the fragments of which inflicted several wounds on head and arms, and one piece of the tin covering struck her neck with such force that the jugular vein was partially severed, causing her death from hemorrhage before surgical aid could be obtained.

She was cracking hickory nuts for her little brother, when he brought her a small object he had found, which he did not understand, and wished to investigate. Not knowing its explosive nature, she proceeded to open it, by laying it on a flat rock and striking it a blow with the hammer. This caused the explosion which resulted in her death in a few hours. Her mother and little brother were near but untouched. She was buried on Saturday at Tuscanooga church cemetery.

DO NOT DOSE THE STOMACH.

Cure Catarrh by Breathing Hyomei. Sold Under Guarantee.

The only scientific and commonsense way to treat catarrh of the nose and throat is by a local application that will kill the catarrhal germs.

Ordinary stomach dosing is worse than useless. Taking medicine into the stomach to cure catarrh of the head can have no good effect, and often leads to serious derangement of the digestive organs.

By breathing Hyomei three or four times daily through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, its medicated, healing air penetrates to the most remote parts of the nose, throat and lungs, searches out and kills all catarrhal germs, and soothes and heals any irritation in the mucous membrane. J. W. McCollum & Co's. faith in the wonderful merit of Hyomei as a cure for catarrh is shown by the guarantee they give with every Hyomei outfit that the money will be refunded unless the treatment gives satisfaction.

CATHERINE BRIGHAM'S FUNERAL

Woman Killed by Her Husband Buried at Arredondo Cemetery.

Catherine Brigham, the victim of the tragedy of Saturday night, has been buried in the family burying ground at Arredondo. The relatives of the woman were notified and came for her remains, and she was buried under a Christian ritual.

In the meantime Brigham is a fugative from justice. Brigham is said to be a good man, and, while he might not have been justified in the action, it is the general opinion that he should never have made the attempt to get away.

The man whom it is claimed the woman met in the cane patch back of the Brigham home is known, and notwithstanding the fact that he is on the streets every day, he may be arrested as accessory to this crime at any time. All were negroes.

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Mothers Should Watch the Development of Their Daughters—Interesting Experiences of Misses Borman and Mills.

Every mother possesses information which is of vital interest to her young daughter.

Too often this is never imparted or is withheld until serious harm has resulted to the growing girl through her ignorance of nature's mysterious and wonderful laws and penalties.

Girls' over-sensitiveness and modesty often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, as they so often withhold their confidence from their mothers and conceal the symptoms which ought to be told to their physician at this critical period.

When a girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness or a disposition to sleep, pains in back or lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude; when she is a mystery to herself and friends, her mother should come to her aid, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change, and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Hundreds of letters from young girls and from mothers, expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them, have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., at Lynn, Mass.

Miss Mills has written the two following letters to Mrs. Pinkham, which will be read with interest:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (First Letter.)
"I am but fifteen years of age, am depressed, have dizzy spells, chills, headache and backache, and as I have heard that you can give helpful advice to girls in my condition, I am writing you."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (Second Letter.)
"It is with the feeling of utmost gratitude that I write to you to tell you what your valuable medicine has done for me. When I wrote you in regard to my condition I had consulted several doctors, but they failed to understand my case and I did not receive any benefit from their treatment. I followed your advice, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now healthy and well, and all the distressing symptoms which I had at that time have disappeared."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Miss Matilda Borman writes Mrs. Pinkham as follows:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my periods were irregular and painful, and I always had such dreadful headaches.

"But since taking the Compound my headaches have entirely left me, my periods are regular, and I am getting strong and well. I am telling all my girl friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Matilda Borman, Farmington, Iowa.

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice, ask her to address Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her every detail of her symptoms, and to keep nothing back. She will receive advice absolutely free, from a source that has no rival in the experience of woman's ills, and it will, if followed, put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of cures of female ills of any medicine that the world has ever known. Why don't you try it?

"They Are Giving Money Away"

We all know and have known various plans of advertising and methods of doing business so as to get the largest amount of cash trade possible, but it is not often that a merchant is found who gives away goods free just to advertise his business. But while it may not be generally known, yet it is a positive fact that there is a firm in Gainesville that are giving away one entire month's business every month.

Saunders & Earle have originated a method to increase their business and are giving away all cash trade of one whole day out of every month. They give a check with every purchase which is issued by their Cash Register, which shows the correct number and amount of each sale, with the initial of the clerk who made the sale. These checks are given as a receipt for cash paid and show on their face the exact amount of the purchase to pay. At the end of each month they announce a certain day, and all checks bearing that date are redeemed they pay their face value in cash and in this way they are making their customers a present of one day's cash receipts.

This is an entirely new plan and the finest one, and it is the best opportunity to get your groceries free that we have ever heard of.

There are many people in Gainesville who could buy their goods for cash just as well as on thirty days time. They buy on credit for the reason that it is a little more convenient and they have no inducements to pay cash.

This enterprising firm have decided to offer this great inducement for more business and they should receive a very large cash business as a result.

"They Are Giving Money Away"

We all know and have seen various plans of advertising and methods of doing business so as to secure the largest amount of custom possible, but it is not often that a merchant is found who gives away goods free just to advertise his business. But while it may not be generally known, yet it is a fact that there is a firm in Gainesville that are giving away one entire day's business every month.

Saunders & Earle have a unique method to increase their business and are giving away all the receipts of one whole day out of every month. They give a check with every purchase which is issued by their Cash Register, which shows the number and amount of sales and the initial of the clerk who made the sale. These checks are given as a receipt for cash paid and show the exact amount of the customer pay. At the end of each month they announce a certain day, and all checks bearing that date are redeemed they pay their face value in cash and in this way they are making their customers a present of one day's cash receipts.

This is an entirely new plan and a fine one, and it is the best opportunity to get your groceries free that we have ever heard of.

There are many people in Gainesville who could buy their goods for cash just as well as on thirty days time. They buy on credit for the reason that it is a little more convenient and they have no inducements to pay cash.

This enterprising firm have decided to offer this great inducement for more business and they should receive a large cash business as a result.
